We have a dedicated staff team who take pride in their role and will assist you with any queries you may have. When choosing our staff we look for the best, by ensuring that they are professional and have some technical ability, as well as firm belief in our organisational values. This is established through training and professional development. We expect our staff to assist us in promoting our company aims, values and objectives.

We have a high quality management team who provide strong professional leadership and support each member of staff to ensure that they deliver the best possible care. We believe in delivering a person centred service that is filtered from management to carers and reinforced through training, supervision and appraisals.

We have an excellent working relationship with local authorities and the CCG's within the local area and work together to ensure that your needs are being met, addressed and that you are safeguarded at all times. We want you to remain at the heart of the service and will do our utmost to promote your independence, dignity and overall quality of life.
